Agricultural Leadership / Communication -0137

Course is designed to strengthen students' personal and group leadership skills. Topics such as public speaking, effective communication, human relations, parliamentary law, and group dynamics are covered. Also covered is the development of Programs of Activity, and Service-Learning projects, including student development, chapter development, and community development.

AGRICULTURAL LEADERSHIP

Introduction to Communication

Understanding Effective Communication Techniques

Identifying Effective Speaking Techniques

Developing Listening Techniques

Organizing and Presenting a Persuasive Speech

Using Communication Skills in Appropriate Situations

Developing Goals

FFA LIFE KNOWLEDGE CURRICULUM

Defining Leadership

Defining Personal Growth

Defining Career Success

The Stages of Development

Philosophies of Leadership

Using your Community as a Laboratory

How Leaders Influence Others

My Decisions and the Opinions of Others

Positive and Negative Influence

Motivation Factors

Critical Thinking Skills

Understanding and Using Creativity

Understanding Self Worth

The Importance of Building Relationships