Landscape - 0144

Introduction to landscape design, construction and maintenance. Irrigation systems for the landscape, including water conservation and use, and xeriscaping for plants. Drawing instruments and symbols used in designing the landscape plan, identification and selection of landscape ground covers, shrubs, trees and other construction materials. Cost estimates and landscape proposals are also covered in this course.

HORTICULTURE

Analyzing the Residential Landscape

Designing the Landscape Areas

Beginning the Design Process

Applying the Principles of Art to the Landscape

Using Annuals and Perennials

Choosing Plants for the Landscape

Putting the Plans on Paper

Pricing the Landscape Plan

Managing the Landscape Business

Preparing the Landscape Site

Installing and Maintaining Irrigation Systems

Woody Landscape Plants, Ground Covers, Perennials, Annuals

Selecting and Establishing Turf Grass

Installing Patios, Walks and Decks

Installing Fences and Walls

Incorporating Lights in the Landscape

Watering, Fertilizing and Mulching Landscape Plants

Maintaining Turf grass Areas

Pruning Landscape Plants

Pricing Landscape Maintenance Work

Planning and Preparing a Vegetable Garden Site

Planning and Maintaining a Vegetable Garden Site

Growing and Maintaining Small Fruits

Growing and Maintaining Tree Fruits

Using Hand Tools

Using Power Tools

Using Landscape Maintenance Equipment

Maintaining Small Engines

Developing Human Relation Skills in the Workplace

Establishing a Horticulture Business

Financial Management in the Horticulture Business

Marketing the Landscape Business

Selling Landscape Design and Construction Work